INTERNATIONAL LAW WEEK-END IN NEW YORK (Nov. 15-16)

The full program is printed on page 2. It provides two days of panel discussions featuring:

Protection against Inflation,
The Next Step for the Law of the Sea,
Terrorism,
Multi-national Corporations and,
Law-making in the United Nations.

Action is now required by members planning to attend the Friday dinner or Saturday luncheon, as no tickets will be sold at the door. Clip the coupon on page 4 and mail as indicated. Guests may be included at both events.

PRE-WEEK-END PANELS AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY (Nov. 14)

Members may precede the week-end events with a full day of panels discussing the Law of the Sea at the Friedmann Memorial Conference, Columbia Law School, 435 West 116 Street, New York, N.Y. 10027. Senior specialists on the subject will discuss in depth the Caracas conference and its aftermath. Advance registration should be completed by letter to the Columbia Journal of Transnational Law, at the Law School address. The day includes a luncheon.

THE INDIA CONFERENCE (Dec. 28-Jan. 4)

Immediate action is required to obtain hotel reservations in New Delhi, as reserved rooms will be released to other conferences by the India Branch on Nov. 10. All members should have already received registration and reservation forms with information on the Conference plane, leaving New York, December 25 at 8:45 P.M., on AIR INDIA. As European participants will board the plane in Paris after the one-night stop-over for a night of repose, space will be limited. If forms have not been received, write immediately to James P. Beggans, Jr., 295 Madison Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017, or communicate directly with the booking agent, Congress Department, Thomas Cook, 587 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017. Attention: Mr. John Benneward. (Tel. 212-754-2828).
